The 108 TAC Clinic's scheduled overseas annual training in Sep 90 was rescheduled by the National Guard Bureau. Approximately 45 personnel deployed to Shaw AFB, S.C. to backfill for active duty personnel deployed to Southwest Asia. The clinic's deployment lasted two weeks. A flight medical technician remained at Shaw for six months.

The 108 TAC Clinic sent MSgt Debra Baker, an optometry technician, to McDill AFB, FL, for thirty days. Captain Andrew Savicky, a clinic psychologist was deployed to Luke AFB, AZ., for 30 days. Senior Airman Scott Leary, a flight medical technician, and Israel Gonzalez, a medical services technician, were deployed to Shaw AFB, S.C. for 1/2 months.

May through August 1995, 13 members of the 108th and 170th Clinic deployed to Guantanamo Bay Naval Base, Cuba for a humanitarian mission, Operation SEA SIGNAL.
