

124 MISSION SUPPORT FLIGHT

MISSION

The 124 Mission Support Flight provides personnel and educational support for all undertakings - both routine and extraordinary - of the 124th Wing. Personnel in the MSF maintain and process documentation for many wing members, from recruiting and retention to education, awards, and training. The MSF offers administration of the family support program and assistance with the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve program. Their accomplishments are countless, as there is no activity, deployment, exercise or training that is not directly or indirectly supported by the 124 MSF.
