

194 MEDICAL GROUP

MISSION

The 194 MDG serves a variety of different medical missions. Prepared to support Air Expeditionary Forces and State-Directed Missions through individual and unit readiness, members of the MDG also support Homeland Defense Operations, and provide comprehensive Aerospace Medicine. Additionally, the MDG provides Medical Administration, Public Health, Dental, and Bioenvironmental Engineering services in support of Wing readiness. The MDG also gets involved with state partnerships such as humanitarian and education efforts.
