

325th MEDICAL SUPPORT SQUADRON

MISSION

The 325th Medical Support Squadron is one of three squadrons assigned to the 325th Medical Group, 325th Fighter Wing, Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla. The squadron provides business operations, administrative support, pharmaceutical services, as well as clinical (laboratory and radiology) services to aid in the medical care of all active duty Air Force, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve, active duty dependents, retirees, retiree dependents, and foreign nationals, enrolled for healthcare at the 325th MDG. The squadron is divided up into six flights all managed by highly trained professionals both from the clinical background and the hospital administrative fields.

The 325th MDSS manages a Defense Healthcare Program budget of $46 million that encompasses the day-to-day operations and maintenance as well as the Purchased Healthcare bill generated by providing healthcare to our beneficiaries. The squadron manages on average 23,000 referrals per year averaging $22 million in "purchased healthcare" for services that cannot be provided in-house for our beneficiaries. The pharmacy dispenses on average 240,000 prescriptions per year. The clinical services perform over 170,000 laboratory test per year and 14,000 radiology exams per year. The 325th MDSS is responsible for all Human Resource assets assigned to the 325th MDG as well as all active recruitment and management actions to fill the highly professional and complex skill set needed to support clinical and non-clinical services.

The squadron ensures that administrative support services are available to serve our beneficiaries by providing outstanding support directly to them and their healthcare providers. The unit is also responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of the entire medical facility to include all MDG campus assets.
