EMBLEM

Azure, a snarling panther face to dexter Proper, its dexter paw swatting a bendwise flight symbol point to base Gules, the back of the panther's paw issuing two lightning bolts to sinister Or, cradled in the panther's paw sinister a terrestrial globe Argent, land masses Sable, all within a diminished bordure Yellow. Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "328TH ARMAMENT SYSTEMS GROUP" in Blue letters.

SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The panther represents both the fierceness and protective function of the unit. The panther cradling the world symbolizes defense, aerospace control and air superiority around the globe. The claws of the panther's right forepaw denote the lethality of weapon systems. The lightning bolts signify the ability to destroy the enemy's detection capability. The flight symbol represents the enemy vehicle about to be defeated.
