EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, in chief a globe of the like, gridlined Argent, at honor point five lightning bolts per fess splayed to chief with two, three, and four diminished Or, in base a mullet charged with a torteau and voluted by a cogwheel of the second, voided of the field, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached below the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "555TH INTERNATIONAL LOG SQ" in Yellow letters. SIGNIFICANCE Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The globe represents the supported international partners of the unit. The five lightning bolts represent continuous real-time exchange of data which enables the supply chain in the five supported geographic unified commands. The lightning bolts' arrangement suggests the connection between the international partners and required resources. The star and cogwheel symbolize logistics and are reminiscent of the Air Force Materiel Command.
