On a disc Azure, a vol Or surmounted by a pellet charged with a bar in bend Argent and issuing below five feathers to base of the last tipped Gules, all within a narrow border Black. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "557 ACSS" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The wings reflect the Squadron's diverse strength while supporting the E-3 AWACS and to maintain a constant combat ready state. The center barred circular icon alludes to the rotodome the E-3's airborne warning and control system. The feathers denote the unit's original service under the Oklahoma City Air Logistics Center.
