

570th GLOBAL MOBILITY SQUADRON

MISSION

The 570th Global Mobility Squadron is a contingency response unit tasked with a 12-hour worldwide response as America's 9-1-1 airbase opening force in hostile or permissive environments. The 570th GMS provides combatant commanders with a rapidly deployable, expeditionary, multi-skilled team consisting of command and control, aircraft maintenance, and aerial port specialties to assess, open, initially operate and transition forward contingency airbases to follow-on forces.
