EMBLEM

On a disc Gules issuing from base, a demi-sphere edged and gridlined Sable, surmounted by an American bald eagle volant Proper grasping a key in tran-aspect wards downward to sinister; in chief, a pellet fimbriated Yellow and charged with a mullet throughout Argent, all within a border of the first. Attached above the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Red border and inscribed "612 AIS" in Red letters. Attached below the disc a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Red border and inscribed "KEY TO VICTORY" in Red letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The star insignia represents the heritage of the Twelfth Air Force Intelligence from World War II. The globe symbolizes the Squadron's worldwide deployable mission. The eagle embodies victory in our nation's wars, while the key is the traditional symbol of Air Force Intelligence.
