EMBLEM

On a disc Or, above a crested base Azure, a rolled parchment Argent, shaded of the second, with a gridlined globe divided vertically of the first and of the second, overall in chief a quill pen

Sable, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached below the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "647TH CONTRACTING SQUADRON" in Yellow letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The crested area indicates the Pacific Air Force. The parchment and quill depicted in black and white signifies the high-quality contracting support and mission compliant solutions. And the two-color gridlined globe symbolizes night or day preparedness.
