EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, a demi-globe in base Argent gridlined Sable surmounted by an American bald eagle volant Proper grasping in its talons a lightning bolt Or edged of the third, piercing a target Proper edged Black, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached below the disc, a Black scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "681ST ARMAMENT SYSTEMS SQ" in Yellow letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The American bald eagle is a US symbol of freedom and symbolizes strength, dedication, devotion to duty and excellence of the personnel the Squadron supports. The lightning bolt in its talons striking the target symbolizes military strength and wartime readiness in the air to ground mission. The globe represents the ability of the unit to oppose potential enemy forces worldwide.
