EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, above in base a demi-globe Celeste, gridlined of the field, a nuclear symbol Or, flanked by two arrows, one in dexter arcing to base and one in sinister arcing to chief Gules, in chief three styled deltas one inverted to dexter and one inverted to sinister Sable, one palewise point to base Silver Gray, contrails conjoined of the fourth, all within a narrow border Blue. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "705TH MUNITIONS SQUADRON" in Blue letters. Attached above the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "AMAT VICTORIA CURAM" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The three inbound deltas are symbolic of the Squadron's weapon systems with the middle delta representing the Air Launched Cruise Missile and the two outer deltas representing the two distinct types of Minuteman III Reentry Vehicles. Additionally, the three deltas are symbolic of the Squadron's officer, enlisted and civilian workforce who maintain and support the global deterrent mission. The globe represents the domain under the unit's protection as well as the unity of the sister services in protecting the Nation and its interests. The atom surrounded by two red bands symbolizes the nuclear arena in which the Squadron operates, while capturing the unit's vigilant stewardship of the Nation's most powerful military capability.
