EMBLEM

On a disc a paly of eight Gules and Or, surmounted in base by a cogwheel arced palewise Sable, charged with three hurts arced, two coupled, the first at dexter side, the third at sinister side, above all two lightning bolts Argent, the first bendwise dexter between the third and fourth pile, and the second bendwise sinister between the fifth and sixth pile, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "WE MAINTAIN THE JAM" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "755TH AMXS" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The lightning bolts represent jamming capability of Compass Call aircraft. The sunrise symbolizes the global responsibility of Compass Call and is consistent with the 55th Wing's motto. The cogwheel signifies aircraft maintenance.
