EMBLEM

Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force Operations. The golden yellow alludes to the sun, the source of light both as illumination and knowledge, essential to the functioning of the squadron. The strip of film depicts the squadron's continuous functions of aerial film processing, evaluation, photo interpretation and intelligence reporting. The divider symbolizes target measuring, precision, plotting and other drafting activities. The cogwheel represents general maintenance and maintenance support. (Approved 27 Aug 1969)
