OPERATIONS

The 87th Troop Carrier Group replaced the 923d Reserve Training Wing as part of the new wing/base organization system. They performed training under the supervision of the 2d Air Reserve District and the 2466th Air Force Reserve Training Center. The group operated a mix of aircraft in the training of reserve aircrews.

"Operation Hoosier" has advanced from a planning stage to an actuality. A recent survey of all Indiana Air Reservists is being utilized in staffing the 923 Reserve Training Wing. The following USAF Reserve Units are being organized effective 1 July (1951) at the Base under the direction of Col. William S. Pocock, Jr., Commanding Officer of the 2466th AFRTC.

Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, 923d Reserve Training Wing;
Headquarters, 923d Maintenance and Supply Group
Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, 923d Air Base Group
923d Medical Group
923d Maintenance Squadron
923d Supply Squadron
923d Communications Squadron
