

926 FORCE SUPPORT SQUADRON

MISSION

The 926 Force Support Squadron facilitates Total Force Integration initiatives by providing force support to reservists assigned to the United States Air Force Warfare Center located at Nellis Air Force Base, Nev., and the 432 Wing at Creech Air Force Base. Using transformational efforts, the squadron helps to maximize air and space dominance and improve joint war-fighting capabilities through the application of constructs that capitalize on Reserve competencies in the warfare center's adversary tactics, test, and operations groups, command and control wing, weapons school and aerial demonstration squadron.
