Decorations

EMBLEM

The divided background of AF golden yellow and light blue represents 24-hour, day-and-night vigilance. The lamp of knowledge, symbolizing the inspection mission, is placed on a field of blue representing the sky, primary theater of Air Force operations. The compass rose, outlined in ultramarine blue, indicates worldwide coverage and is placed on a field of golden yellow to reflect the official Air Force colors. (Approved, 10 Feb 1959)

The emblem was designed by SMSgt Ray K. Askoland
