EMBLEM

Blue and yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The star and the upper portion of the globe symbolize the location of the squadron in Alaska. The eagle represents the 1930th Communications Squadron and the two stars at the tips of the lightning bolts symbolize Detachment 1 and Detachment 2. The lightning bolts indicate the aerospace communications systems, navigational aids and air traffic control support provided by the squadron.
