Many difficulties were encountered during the early days of the camp particularly in securing sufficient recruits and equipment. Recruits from other camps in Texas commenced to arrive immediately, but the number received was considerably smaller than anticipated. By February 5th a sufficient number had arrived to enable the formation of the 37th Balloon Companies. These were designated as depot or home companies, and the purpose of their organization was to train recruits to fit them for overseas service.

July 3rd the 37th Balloon Company, commanded by 2nd Lieut. John H. Bishop left for the new balloon school at Arcadia, California.
