OPERATIONS

Its mission was one of providing logistics support to USAF activities and insurance that such support was adequate and responsive. For the USAF Chief of Staff it maintained control of requisitioning, supplying and movement of materiel and personnel into and from the Zone of Interior, aerial and water port of embarkation.

3101st (Atlantic), New York Port of Embarkation, under AMC's control

Increases in air traffic accentuated the need for centralized air traffic control at the aerial port of embarkation. Transfer of control was necessary, AMC announced, to insure establishment of uniform organization and traffic control procedures at the USAF Logistics Terminals and provide necessary assistance to Army transportation agencies. Because of its convenience to water ports.
