OPERATIONS

1 May 1944 Upon its activation, the 3505th Army Air Force Base Unit assumed all administrative responsibilities for Scott Field from the Post Headquarters.

1 July — 30 September 1948 The reorganization of the 3505th AF Base Unit to the 3310th

Technical Training Wing and subordinate Table of Distribution Units, effective 26 August 1948 was accomplished without excessive difficulty despite the administrative load involved. Gen. Kiel became commander of the Wing as well as of Scott Air Force Base 26 Aug. 1948. Directly under the Wing Commander are the Executive Officer, Public Information Officer, Inspector General, Air Inspector, Air Provost Marshal and the Hq. and Hq. Sq., consisting of the wing staff and the personnel.
