OPERATIONS

Another advanced single-engine pilot school opened in the latter half of 1951 when ATC activated Bryan AFB on 1 July. On the same day, the command established the 3530th Pilot Training Wing (Advanced Single-Engine) at Bryan.

Basic single-engine training ended at Bryan on 12 June. The command discontinued Bryan's 3530th Pilot Training Wing on 25 October and placed the base on inactive status until it transferred to Air Materiel Command on 1 April 1960.
