OPERATIONS

The transfer of the Medical Service School under Colonel Wiedeman proceeded on its ambitious schedule. On 1 March 1966, the 3794th Student Squadron was organized at Sheppard and assigned to the school. One month later, on 6 April 1966, the school commenced formal training in two of the 43 courses scheduled to be transferred from Gunter. Center Commander Brig Gen Edward H. Nigro and Col Wiedeman were on hand to welcome the first students in the Diet Supervisor course.
