OPERATIONS

Due to budget restrictions and reorganization, the Special Weapons Center was disestablished during 1976. 4900th Air Base Group re-designated the 4900th Air Base Wing and assumed base host duties.

On July 1, 1977, the base once again changed hands as the 1606th Air Base Wing was created when Military Airlift Command took over responsibility for operating Kirtland AFB from Air Force Systems Command.
