

9 MAINTENANCE GROUP

MISSION

The 9th Maintenance Group has four squadrons totaling more than 1,150 personnel. It is responsible for providing worldwide maintenance support for the U-2, T-38, and RQ-4. The 9th Maintenance Group supports the wing mission by providing spare parts, off-equipment maintenance and mass ammunition production training through the Air Force Combat Ammunitions Center. It also supports worldwide taskings for operating locations and other Joint Chiefs of Staff requirements.
