OPERATIONS

On 30 June, the 60th Mission Support Squadron was activated on base. It was a reconstituted 60th Base Headquarters and Air Base Squadron that had been disbanded in 1944. It was responsible for the military and civilian personnel offices, educational services, social actions, the family support center, information management, and the orderly room. Subsequently, when the headquarters squadron section of the 60th Air Base Group was deleted on 1 October and its functions realigned to the headquarters squadron section of the 60th Military Airlift Wing, the enlisted manpower spaces of the headquarters squadron section of the 60th Air Base Group were realigned to man the orderly room section of the 60th Mission Support Squadron. the two orderly rooms were consolidated.
