History of the US Air Force in Taiwan 1958
1958

1 July. The 6209th Air Base Squadron assumed USAF Host Services at Shu Lin Kou Air Station.

18 August. 6214th Communications Squadron was organized at Taipei and placed under administration of 6214th Air Base Group at Tainan AS. On 2 September 1958 it was placed under operational control of 1961st AACS Sq at Clark AB. Its mission was to provide communications in support of ATF 13 (P) and US section of the Joint Operations Center (JOC).

18 August. Det 1, 6200th Air Base Wing, Taipei; (its function was assumed by the 6214th ABG at Tainan AS) Det 2, 6200th Air Base Wing, Tainan; and Det 2, 14th Communications Sq Taipei, were discontinued this date per Thirteenth Air Force GO 39, dated 8 August 1958. The same General Order activated 6214th Air Base Group, Tainan, 6214th Support Squadron, Tainan and 6214th Communications Squadron, Taipei. Also 6214th Air Base Group was attached to Det 1, Thirteenth Air Force at Taipei for operational, administration and logistical control.

2 September. 6214th Air Base Group at Tainan AS moved into their new headquarters building. The 868th Tactical Missile Squadron moved into a new building at the same time.

8 September. All personnel functions for Taiwan were consolidated in the 6214th Air Base Group at Tainan AS, Taiwan.

25 September. The 2165th Communications Squadron, Detachment 1 and Detachment 2 were designated and organized per MATS GO-140, 25 September 1958.

1 October. Major James B. Carter assumed command of 6214th Support Squadron.
