OPERATIONS

Light blue, between in chief four mullets fesswise argent and in base an ellipsoid of the field grid lined of the second, in saltire an olive branch vert surmounted by a stylized eagle or on a missile gules, the missile trailing two vapor lines to sinister base azure, all within a diminished border of the second. SIGNIFICANCE: The emblem is symbolic of the group and its mission. Against a background of blue sky and stars, an eagle astride a missile represents strength and speed for the preservation of peace. An olive branch indicates peace and a globe indicates worldwide peace through power of missile strength. The emblem bears the Air Force colors, ultramarine blue and golden yellow, and the national colors, red, white, and blue. (Approval, 24 Oct 1960)
