OPERATIONS

Since July 1953 the Air Force had conducted a training course for chaplains at Lackland. That course evolved into a separate school when, on 1 June 1960, ATC established the USAF Chaplain School at Lackland and assigned it to the Officer Military Schools. The new school provided instruction for chaplains as well as legal officers.

In 1965 Headquarters USAF announced that the USAF Chaplain School at Lackland would move to Maxwell in 1966 and become part of Air University. Air University established a USAF

Chaplain School on 20 May 1966; ATC did not discontinue its school until 1 July 1966. The first formal chaplain training came into existence in March 1918 at Fort Monroe, Virginia. A month later the program moved to Camp Zachary Taylor near Louisville, Kentucky. Then late in World War II it operated at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. Fort Slocum, New York, hosted the program from 1946 to 1 July 1953, when the Air Force began training chaplains. On that date, ATC established a chaplain's course at Lackland. From 1958 to 1965, judge advocates also reported to the chaplain school for training.
